GERMAN TROOPS OCCUPY SOFIA: BULGARIAN MINISTER IN LONDON TENDERS RESIGNATION: INTERNAL TROUBLE SEEN: NO ENTHUSIASM

PUTTING HIS SIGNATURE IN VIENNA TO THE TRIPARTITE PACT ON SATURDAY, M. FILOFF, THE PRIME MINISTER OF BULGARIA, SIGNED AWAY THE LAST VESTIGE OF HIS COUNTRY'S INDEPENDENCE, AND, WHEN HE RETURNS TO SOFIA, HE WILL FIND GERMAN TROOPS IN OCCUPATION, STATES A LONDON MESSAGE.

The Bulgarian Parliament was to have held a special session yesterday evening. Neither the Bulgarian nor the German Governments made a statement about the arrival of fully-armed Nazi troops in the capital of Bulgaria at 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

Bulgarian people are not enthusiastic over the signing of the Pact and they watched the entry of German troops with silent curiosity. MANY BULGARIANS, REMEMBERING WHAT HAPPENED IN RUMANIA, FORESEE INTERNAL TROUBLE.

Ironically, the newspapers in Bulgaria published lengthy articles on independence as today (Monday) is Bulgaria's national independence day.

Turkey Will Intervene

IF GREECE INVADED THROUGH BULGARIA

LONDON, March 2. (Reuter)—Whatever Germany's ultimate intentions in the Balkans, the phase is still chiefly a war of nerves calculated to frighten the Greeks into a separate peace with Italy, says the SUNDAY TIMES. Diplomatic correspondent.

But the Greek morale is standing the large scale intimidation remarkably well nor is Turkey much impressed by Bulgaria's adherence towards the Axis.

It is firmly believed that Turkey will intervene if Germany attempts to invade Greece through Bulgaria.

POSSIBLE TO HOLD

Many military experts maintain, continues the correspondent, that the Bulgarian frontier of Greece with difficult, partly mountainous and partly marshy terrain, will be possible to hold even against greatly superior forces.

One of the chief problems is the equipment of the Turkish Army with sufficient material in the event of a long war.

It is believed satisfactory conclusions have been reached in the matter.

SOVIET RUSSIA

No serious uneasiness is felt about Soviet Russia and there is strong feeling in Ankara that the Russians are glad to see Turkey and Britain depending on the Straits and other common interests without the Soviet having to go to any trouble herself.

There are indications, the diplomatic correspondent concludes, that in view of the dangers and drawbacks setting up second front in the Balkans, there is a tendency in Germany to argue, in favour of leaving Turkey alone for the present and concentrating on the attack on Britain.

Bulgaria Added To List Of Satelites

The terms of the pact which BULGARIA has signed merely state that Bulgaria recognises the leadership of GERMANY and ITALY in the formation of a New Order in Europe. There is no pretence of Bulgaria being a partner—her name is merely added to the list of satellites.

Bulgaria would have powerful friends if she had resisted Germany, but her capitulation is now regarded as a deliberate choice. It indicates that in SOFIA, the pro-German army leaders were playing the German game.

At the end of this war, said a London commentator yesterday, the Bulgars will find themselves on the losing side. FOR THE PRESENT, their recognition of German leadership means nothing more than the occupation of Bulgaria by German pressure.

This brings Bulgaria into the war area and will provide the R. A. F. with easy targets for attack. The whole of Bulgaria may soon have reasons for bitter regrets. (Special)

Statement By Filoff "Give & Take" Goebbels

VICHY, Mar. 2 (Reuter)—"German statesmen understand perfectly the interests of Bulgarian people," declared M. Filoff, the Prime Minister of Bulgaria, in an interview given to Bulgarian journalists before he left by plane for home today says a Sofia dispatch to the official French Agency.

M. Filoff added, "We interpret the Tripartite Pact as an instrument of peace assuring a fair and lasting new order in Europe. It does not affect in any way our treaties of friendship with our neighbours and we will continue our traditional policy of friendship with Russia."

"I am convinced, Bulgaria's adhesion to the Pact answers the interest of the Bulgarian people and will have important results for Bulgaria in the future."

The Germans are doubling the police force in Oslo in order to prevent trouble, states a London message. (Special)

DEATH OF MR. RENDEL HARRIS

LONDON, Mar. 2 (Reuter)—The death has occurred here of Mr. James Rendel Harris, M.A., the well-known archaeologist and orientalist, at the age of 89.

KOWLOON VICAR HAS MISGIVING ABOUT LOTTERY

"I am not a gambler—except that I have cheerfully staked my life on my belief in God," writes the REV. H. A. WITTENBACH, B.A. Th.L., Acting-Vicar, in the "Andrian." "I risk being called a kill-joy and unparliamentary when I say I view with misgiving the running of a huge lottery for the War Fund."

"I deprecate that type of patriotism that requires the chance of winning a car or a yacht or a case of beer to open its pockets."

"May I add I deprecate just as strongly that type of religion which seeks to bribe men by its glowing promises of heavenly bliss."

MR. GEORGE W. RENDEL, British Minister in Sofia, is reported to have expressed a wish for an interview with KING BORIS.

The Nazi propaganda machine has once again been set going at full blast and it says that the latest move is yet another blow to Britain's influence in Europe.

Herr Joachim von Ribbentrop, Nazi Foreign Minister, is reported to have stated that other States would follow Bulgaria.

The entry into Bulgaria is regarded as Germany's reply to Mr. Anthony Eden, the British Foreign Secretary's visit to Turkey. The Ankara talks, it is added, have created a deep impression in Yugoslavia.

The Anglo-Turkish alliance is as firm as ever.

FORCED DOWN

A three-engined German plane was forced down in Yugoslavia the pilot having stated that he lost his bearings. Seven other German planes, which flew over the Iron gates of the Danube, were attacked by Yugoslav machine-gun fire and were reported to have been damaged.

In Washington, Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State, declared that he had received no official information regarding Bulgaria's signature of the Tripartite Pact.

"The Bulgarian Minister in London has telegraphed his resignation as he disapproves of his Government's policy of permitting the entry of German troops. (Special)

Winant, United States Ambassador to Great Britain, at a railway station after the envoy had been greeted by the Duke of Kent at an airport following his arrival from Lisbon, states a London message.

Mr. Winant, formerly Director of the International Labour Office, Geneva, who was appointed in succession to Mr. Joseph P. Kennedy, greeted by the Duke of Kent and then said, "I haven't much to say. I am very glad to be here. There is no place I would rather be in than England."

The new American Ambassador to the Court of St. James's has a smile that is warm and friendly and it is with that spirit that he will embark on this great job—one of tremendous importance to both countries. Of his post, Mr. Winant said modestly, "I hope to be useful."

VICHY REPLY TO JAPANESE PLAN HANDED TO MATSUOKA BY FRENCH AMBASSADOR

The French Ambassador to Japan yesterday morning handed to Mr. Matsuoka, Japanese Foreign Minister, the reply of Vichy to Japan's plan for settlement of the dispute between Thailand and Indo-China, states a London message.

The NICHU NICHU SHIMBUN states that the prospect of negotiations is bright as the French Government was beginning to understand Japan's pure and impartial motives. At the same time, the Japanese Government, the paper added, was still sticking to its plans.

Developments in the Balkans and the invasion of Bulgaria have not diverted attention from events in the Far East, states a message from Sydney.

There was no confirmation of Saturday's reports that Vichy had accepted practically all the Japanese proposals. On Saturday night it was announced in Tokyo that a conciliatory reply had been received from Vichy.

BASIC DEMANDS

American Press reports however affirm that the basic demands made by Japan had been accepted by Vichy and that according to the terms Thailand would get nearly all her claims for territory.

Marshal Petain, who broadcast to the French people on Saturday, made no reference to the proposals made by Japan nor Vichy's attitude towards them.

It was stated yesterday that further negotiations would be necessary in the settlement of the dispute. (Special)

SHANGHAI, Mar. 2 (Reuter)—Japanese authorities in Indo-China are reported to have announced in Hanoi today that Vichy had accepted the Japanese proposal in principle but the French state that no official news was yet received and are continuing the military preparations.

Munitions Drive In Australia

Importance Emphasised By Brooke-Popham

Speaking in Singapore yesterday, AIR CHIEF MARSHAL SIR ROBERT BROOKE-POPHAM, Commander-in-Chief of the Far East, said: "A good job has been done to meet, any threat to British interests in the Orient," according to a message from Sydney.

Sir Robert emphasised the importance of Australia's munitions drive.

"The stronger we are, the less chance there is of anyone trying to attack us," he said, and added that he was amazed at what Australia had done in munition production.

The Japanese Consul-General in Australia, MR. AKIYAMA, declared yesterday that he saw signs of a settlement of the Pacific tension by peaceful means and that he did not think there was any need to worry about the situation. He believed that the whole situation would be easily solved.

and Japan was doing all in her power to preserve peace.

SIR FREDERICK STEWART, Australia's Minister for External Affairs, announced yesterday that Mr. Kawai, the new Japanese Minister to Australia, would arrive in Sydney on March 13. He said that Mr. Kawai's arrival would justify the belief that peace would be preserved in the Orient.

Asked whether it was proposed to exchange Ministers with China, Sir Frederick stated that at the moment he had no further information that could be given on the subject.

FULLY PREPARED

Mr. A. W. Fadden, the acting Prime Minister of Australia, stated yesterday that Australia was prepared for any eventuality, states a message from Sydney.

"Australia is the bulwark of democracy in the Pacific and will fight with every force at her command to see that democracy is preserved," he said.

NEW POST

Another message from Sydney stated that the broad political basis of Australia's war effort was seen in the appointment of Mr. McAlpine to a full time post in Australia's wartime shipbuilding programme.

Mr. McAlpine, who was assistant Secretary of the New South Wales Labour Council, declared yesterday that Unionists felt that the country was going ahead with its shipbuilding programme in a way that was essential to Australia and the British Commonwealth of Nations. (Special)

A LUXURIOUS TIME WINS OPENING RACE AT VALLEY TO PAY HIGHEST WIN DIVIDEND

Australian Sub. Champions Annexed By United Express

Despite the constant threat of rain there was a very satisfactory attendance on the final day of the Annual Race Meeting, held at the Valley yesterday.

Ponies, on the whole, ran true to form with the result that there was scarcely any upset. The biggest win dividend was paid by Miss Li Po-chun's A Luxurious Time, which beat the second favourite by three lengths, in the opening event, The Caulfield Stakes. This pony paid $64.30. The highest place dividend was returned by Rose Jane when she unexpectedly ran in third in the Taiping Handicap. A Rosy Time, the second placed pony in the Flemington Plate, second section, paid $25.40.

Mr. Ip Kul-ying had an arm-chair ride on Necan's wonder Australian sub. United Express in the Professional Cup and Australian Subscription Ponies Champions. There was never any doubt of this pony winning the Champions, and such was the confidence of the punters that she went out carrying 4,486 tickets out of a total of 6,781. The second favourite, Endeavour, was unable to obtain even one of the minor places.

At the end of the Taiping Handicap, Eve of Folly was disqualified as its jockey, Mr. "Taffy" Davis, was unable to make the weight he weighted out in.

Mr. V. V. Needa was unseated by Corriedoo just before the commencement of the Flemington Plate, second section, and the entrant was accordingly withdrawn.

Records Fall At La Salle Athletic Meet

Senior Championship Won By A. P. Silva

The annual athletic sports of La Salle College were held on the school ground on Saturday, producing three records and, in general, showing of a very fair standard of performance.

The performance of the afternoon was L. Silva's 1,500 metres run in 5 mins. 5.2/5 sec., breaking the old record by 13 seconds. The time augurs well for his chances in the forthcoming Inter-School Sports, and the College, on the whole, should have a very fair team.

Another outstanding performance was N. Castro's 400 metres in 58.4/8 seconds, while E. Tavares broke the Junior record for 800 metres when he ran the distance in 2 mins. 27 secs. The third record fell in the concluding event of the day, the Two Miles Bicycle Race, won by A. Sandberg in 5 mins. 38 secs.

SENIOR CHAMPIONSHIP
The Senior Championship was won by A. P. Silva, who won the 100 metres, 200 metres and Hurdles and placed third in the long jump.
The Junior Championship was won by J. R. Pereira and the Middle School Championship by L. Sequeira.
Other Senior Winners were H. Hyndman in the Hop, Step, Jump; A. MacKee in the High Jump; N. Castro in the Long Jump; G. Salazar in the Shot Put, and J. Xavier in the 800 metres.

South China Top League With Win Over Navy

O'REGAN CONSPICUOUS IN DEFENCE: LEE WAL-TONG SCORES TWO

Two of the semi-finalists in the Senior Shield, ROYAL NAVY and SOUTH CHINA, were seen in a hard fought League match at Causeway Bay yesterday and although the latter won by four goals to one the score was no criterion of the run of play.

The Hon. Capt. A. C. Collinson, R. N., was present at the match.

Navy started off well and throughout the game held their own against the Chinese. They were, however, in some respect a penalty-awarded early in the game seemed to upset them and their attack did not work as smoothly as in the initial stages. The Chinese, on the other hand, played clever soccer throughout and all their goals were the result of well-conceived movements.

Roughley and O'Regan played a good defensive game, the former was especially conspicuous, robbing Lee Wal-tong on several occasions just in the area. Hazard worked hard at the pivotal berth and was well supported by Paul on his right but Hawkins, on the left, showed he was a much better forward than a half-back.

PALPABLY WEAK

The forwards were good up to a certain point but when in front of goal they were palpably weak. Many scoring chances were thrown away through poor passing. Skinner, on the left, showed a good turn of speed but delayed in centring too long. Hendy was not allowed much rope by Lam Tak-po while Le Page was the only one who was not afraid to try a shot.

The main strength of the Chinese lay in their intermediate line where Lau Hing-chol, Lam Tak-po and Lau Chung-sang had the full measure of their opponents. With the halves lending them excellent support the forwards were able to give of their best. Lee Tak-kee was given plenty of room to manoeuvre by Hawkins and his centres always played danger but Lee Shek-yau, though a bagful of tricks, found the tenacious attentions of Paul a hard obstacle.

TAM TESTED

Play opened very even with both sides taking up the attack in turn. Le Page sent Skinner through and the latter tested Tam Kwan-kon with a stinger. Play continued to alternate from one end to the other. Much against the run of play a penalty was awarded against Roughley for charging LEE WAL-TONG, who made no mistake from the "spot".

This appeared to have a disconcerting effect on Navy as their forwards were never able to settle down to their smooth game shown early in the game. South China increased their lead when LEE SHEK-YAU, receiving a pass from Chow Man-chi, evaded Roughley to net with a beautiful shot. Navy recovered to some extent and though they pressed the Chinese goal, "lemon time" arrived with the Chinese still leading by two goals.

HENDY'S GROUND

On resumption, South China continued to be the more dangerous team and GIFT was called on first by Lee Shek-yau and then Lee Wal-tong. Navy retaliated and Hendy's ground was cleared by Tsang Chun-wan just in time. At this stage Navy seemed to have got over their earlier setback and were mostly on the attack. Hesitancy in front of goal and weak passes, however, saw all their efforts come to naught.

Forcing a corner from the left, CHAN TAK-FAI headed in from the resultant kick. With about 15 minutes to go LEE WAL-TONG, obtaining possession, beat GIFT from over 20 yards out. Almost on time LE PAGE netted, from a scrimmage to reduce arrears.

NAVY: GIFT, Roughley, O'Regan, Paul, Hazard, Hawkins, Anderson, Le Page, Hendy, Barber and Skinner.

RADIO SURGERY

Wireless Set—Newest Ally Of Medical Men

The wireless set is the newest ally of surgery. Doctors are using them in hospitals where people injured by bomb splinters are being treated.

The surgeon has only to connect an insulated "probe" to the wireless set "tune in," and the presence of bomb fragments in the body can be detected rapidly.
When the "probe" touches a bomb fragment in the body it produces a loud click or scratching noise in the loudspeaker, easily distinguishable from the sounds made by bone fragments, or non-metallic objects.

PROCEDURE DESCRIBED

Dr. James S. Hall, of Victoria Infirmary, Deal, describes the procedure in the British Medical Journal. He writes:

"Take any valve-operated wireless set to the patient, switch it on, and open out the volume control. If a programme is heard, tune it out, leaving the set in a sensitive condition. Connect a few feet of wire ending in an insulated probe to the aerial terminal or socket, and the apparatus is complete."

"As the noise heard is due to capacity changes in the aerial circuit of the set, touching the patient's A.R.P. badge or tiepin would give no result, while a ring on his finger or a piece of bomb in his buttock yields a loud and distinct click; the noise in the speaker increasing with the size of the metallic object touched."

MR. EDEN'S JOURNEY TO ANKARA WELCOMED BY PRESS

Reiteration Of Anglo-Turco Friendship Major Upset For Nazi Diplomacy In Balkans

LONDON, March 2 (Reuter).—The success and vigour of British diplomacy, as exemplified by the visit of Mr. Anthony Eden and General Sir John Dill to the Near East, was emphasised by the London press yesterday.

The Daily Telegraph declared that the spontaneity of the acclamation with which Mr. Eden and General Dill were received in Turkey constitutes a major discomfiture for Nazi diplomacy, while the Daily Mail says the whole Empire will welcome the new vigour of British diplomacy as exemplified in Turkey. At last we are passing from passive defence to action in policy as well as in arms.

Mr. Eden's visit to Ankara is a fine piece of timing. His meeting with Turkish leaders is at least as spectacular and certainly more convincing than the recent bullet-proofed rendezvous of the dictators. It is pleasant to realise that these stage conspirators have now had to change roles for those of anxious spectators.

The welcome given Mr. Eden and General Dill and the cordial agreements reached, completely refute the frantic German efforts to brand the recent pact between Turkey and Bulgaria as a great British defeat.

It is not mere coincidence that the successful conclusion of Mr. Eden's talks was immediately followed by the clear warning given to the Bulgarians by Mr. Rendel. It is, indeed, heartening to hear a British diplomat speaking so clearly in terms of realities.

The Daily Telegraph also praises Turkish diplomacy, saying she never faltered at the darkest moments of Dunkirk and the Battle of Britain.

BERLIN DISCONCERTED

No small part of the contribution she can make to the common cause is to keep Germany guessing. Her diplomacy has been so adroitly directed that Berlin is disconcerted by doubts as to Turkey's reaction to a drive on Greece through Bulgaria.

Meanwhile, adds the paper, the storm clouds are forming rapidly over Bulgaria.

Should circumstances arise which call for Turkish military intervention, the General Staffs of the two countries have dispositions ready to act in complete understanding.

MUTUAL INTERESTS

It was indicated in Ankara yesterday that the mutual interests of Turkey and Great Britain in the face of the present Balkan conditions were the subject of special

FAREASTERN "MUNICH"

MAJOR CLASH NOW NOT IMMINENT

SINGAPORE, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—Reports that France had accepted Japan's demands on Indo-China were received with relief by the man-in-the-street yesterday.

It was felt that the immediate threat of a major clash in the Far East has now passed.

Long term thinkers, however, tend to regard the present as a sort of "Munich Stage," with a clash merely postponed and needing but a spark to cause a general flare-up.

As a result of the solution reported to have been enforced on Indo-China, Japan is freely expected gradually to increase her hold on Indo-China and to come to dominate Thailand—which would bring Japan's armies to the very borders of Malaya and Burma.

It may safely be said, therefore, that the vigilance and ever-increasing preparedness of the British forces in the Far East will not be relaxed one iota, however much local tension may appear outwardly to have eased.

RUSSIA-THAILAND RELATIONS

TOKYO, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—Diplomatic relations between Russia and Thailand, which have been interrupted since the Soviet revolution in 1917, will be restored by an exchange of Notes early in March, following the return of the Thai envoy to Moscow, says a semi-official Japanese report from Moscow.

Foreign diplomatic circles are attaching importance to the re-establishment of Soviet-Thai relations which indicate that trade negotiations will be initiated after the re-opening of the Thai Legation in Moscow, according to the report.

U.S. VOLUNTEERS FOR MANILA

TOKYO, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—The American Committee in Manila has decided to start an immediate campaign to organise a volunteer force to co-operate with the authorities in the various defence measures, says a semi-official Japanese report from Manila yesterday.

The committee was organised on Feb. 24 to co-ordinate the activities of Government and civilians according to the report.

LONDON, March 2 (Reuter).—There was little enemy air activity over England on Saturday and there were no reports of bombs being dropped during the day.

When night fell, there were reports of raiders over London and South England and the capital had two alerts before midnight, but both proved of a short duration.

NEW GERMAN BOMB SAID TO HAVE AMAZING POWERS OF DESTRUCTION

BERLIN, Feb. 6.—Semi-official German sources today stated that a new kind of explosive and incendiary bomb, specially designed for use against industrial plants, has been developed by German munitions experts.

The new explosive, in contrast to ordinary explosives which have a thick metal skin, boasts an extremely thin skin fashioned from a new kind of light metal and packed with a correspondingly higher percentage of explosive materials.

SPLINTER ACTION

Splinter action is not the characteristic feature of the new bomb, but it was claimed that the bomb has an extraordinarily high and destructive concussion force which spreads the bomb over a large area. As a result of the low steel content, the bombs can be quickly manufactured—it was estimated that production time has been decreased as much as 80 per cent.

The new incendiary bomb is called "DFF" or "Universal Feuer-packing." It is packed with a variety of explosive and incendiary substances which, according

BULGARIA ROPED INTO THREE-POWER PACT

Hitler Absent At Signing Of Protocol In Vienna

LONDON, March 2 (Reuter).—Following weeks of varied rumours as to her fate, Bulgaria yesterday entered the Axis fold when she signed a pact in the Belvedere Palace, in Vienna, under which she adheres to the Three-Power Pact between Germany, Italy and Japan.

While Hitler was not present at the actual signing, which took place at 12.45 in the afternoon, Germany, Italy and Japan were represented by von Ribbentrop, Count Ciano and General Oshima (Japanese Ambassador in Berlin).

The Bulgarian Prime Minister, M. Filoff, signed for his country, while other Axis satellites present were representatives of Hungary, Rumania and Slovakia.

An hour after the ceremony a luncheon attended by Hitler was given in the Palace. Ribbentrop met M. Filoff when the latter arrived in Vienna by air from Sofia.

DECISION WELCOMED

In a short address Ribbentrop welcomed M. Filoff on behalf of the German Government and expressed satisfaction at the Bulgarian decision to join the Pact. Ribbentrop regretted that M. Popoff, the Bulgarian Foreign Minister, was unable to attend "owing to illness."

Text of the protocol, which is identical to that under which Rumania, Hungary and Slovakia adhered to the pact, was signed first by M. Filoff and Ribbentrop and the other Axis signatories.

M. Filoff then read in German a declaration that "Bulgaria will remain faithful to the friendship agreement with her neighbours and will continue the traditional friendly relations with the Soviet Union."

INSTRUMENT OF PEACE

He added that the pact was an instrument of policy aimed at securing for nations the possibility of greater development and welfare and a just and permanent peace.

Ribbentrop then congratulated Bulgaria on her decision and expressed confidence that more States would soon join the pact.

He declared: "The power behind the vital claims of the young nations is tremendous. In the coming year, British lies will be replaced by German facts."

"The Axis armies have taken up their position for the attack and are ready to meet and defeat Britain wherever she appears."

GERMAN EXPECTATIONS

As a result of Bulgaria's action, German propaganda is conjuring up great expectations.

One suggestion is that Bulgaria's action is the consequence of the conclusion of the Turkish-Bulgarian pact while it is fore-shadowed that Yugoslavia will "try to follow her neighbour's example."

All these propagandist statements are considered devoid of foundation in London.

CHINA'S GALLANT RESISTANCE PRAISED BY BRITISH MINISTER

LONDON, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—China's undaunted resistance against Japan is still the strongest defence against aggression in the Far East, declared Sir J. S. Wardlaw-Milne, M.P., in a letter to the London Times yesterday.

JAPANESE ULTIMATUM TO INDO-CHINA

Washington Is Not Unduly Alarmed

WASHINGTON, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—The Japanese "ultimatum" towards Indo-China and the presence of the Japanese Fleet in the Gulf of Siam is not regarded as an immediate threat to the Dutch East Indies or to Singapore.

It is, however, widely felt that the course of Japanese action may show whether the Navy is about to embark on a rampage on the seas similar to that of the Army's which began on the Asiatic mainland some years ago.

Every move in this mysterious form of mediation has been watched in Washington with the greatest of interest.

In the meantime, Americans are receiving with considerable delight the reports of the German difficulties in Holland.

The Washington Post is of the opinion that Holland will be the most difficult country in Europe for Germany to digest, and says that Hitler will never be able to bend the Dutch towards slavery.

MADRAS, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—The City Corporation has resolved to contribute £500 to the War Fund, and earmarked for the strengthening of the defences of Singapore.

He says that in the past nine months the Japanese army has had no successes but several notable reverses—in Shansi and Hopei in August, the lower Yangtze Valley in October and a serious defeat in the Han Valley in November.

Japanese evacuation of Nanning and the whole province of Kwangsi was of immense importance. Even if the Japanese retired in good order, which the Chinese deny, it was a very plain confession of the need for reducing commitments.

China is containing a million Japanese and Japanese casualties in China are not far short of a million.

The extraordinary progress in the development of Free China's wealth has astonished foreign observers and is surely attested by the recent visits to Chungking of official economic missions from Burma and the United States.

The moral of the whole situation, however, is the unequalled importance of China's continued resistance and that the more help China can be given in materials and money the more effective is her check on further aggression by the small body of pro-Nazi sympathisers who now rule Japan, to the anxiety of the large number of sober-minded Japanese and central.

Robert Symons and Vivian Arthur Perkins have been permitted to quit the Hongkong Defence Reserve while Thomas Ferguson has been reassigned from the General Group for Essential Services to the Combatant Group.

MR. LAUGHLIN CURRIE RECEIVES THE PRESS

MR. LAUGHLIN CURRIE, President Roosevelt's administrative assistant and personal envoy to GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK, received the local Press on Saturday in the offices of the American Consul-General, Mr. Addison E. Southard.

The local Press turned up in full force, the Chinese being for once as well represented as the foreign, and at least one foreign correspondent was present to give the whole occasion a more world-wide aspect.

The Press having already gathered and taken up strategic positions vice one another in the waiting-room at the Consulate, reporters furtively eyed each other and wondered whose lot it would be to ask the one or two questions of an embarrassing international nature that could be put.

The Chinese reporters appeared to be confident and glanced occasionally at long lists of hieroglyphics from which they sought, with the aid of Mr. Currie, to reconstruct the whole Far Eastern situation for the edification of their readers.

A DOOR OPENED. Finally, a good number of cigarettes having been smoked out and thrown away, and some of the more wealthy personalities in the local newspaper world having smoked away pipituls of good tobacco to fortify themselves for the occasion, a door opened (the one Mr. Southard uses for exit into his outer office), and the American Consul passed by en route, we suspect, to confer with someone in the adjoining office.

Just as our attention had become so distracted, the door leading into the waiting room from the corridor opened and four gentlemen walked in. They were Mr. Currie, Mr. Despres, Mr. Hollington K. Tong and a C. I. D. officer. Mr. Currie, and the gentlemen accompanying him, walked through the waiting room into Mr. Southard's office, and presently the Consul-General reappeared suddenly on the scene to announce that the Press conference was about to start.

WELL PREPARED. The Press hurried in three deep, there being some jostling for position, and the first half-dozen in sat down immediately on all but the two best seats available. Mr. Currie seemed well prepared and was confidently leaning back in Mr. Southard's chair, smoking a cigarette.

Some of the men with pipes seemed slightly sheepish at such democratic treatment of the whole subject of nicotine, and one reporter appeared to be having trouble with his pencil that was evidently not of the best manufacture.

One representative assumed the role of spokesman and the bout of mental fencing was on. Mr. Currie agreed that he had enjoyed a very fine trip to Chungking, that he was very much impressed with Chungking, and that he would like to revisit the city.

UNFORTUNATE POSITION. Pressed for details, Mr. Currie assumed the stand that he could not discuss Chungking further, being in the unfortunate position that he had not the opportunity during his visit to walk the streets of the Capital at any length.

Mr. Currie went on to relate that he had visited one of the leading aviation schools in Chungking and had been present at an aerial display. Mr. Hollington K. Tong elaborated on the statement to inform the Press that the name of the aviation school was "Cheng To."

He had also visited the Chairman of Szechuen Province, Mr. Currie said, and here Mr. Tong informed us that the chairman was General Chang Chun.

THRUSTS BEGIN. The preliminaries having been got over and Mr. Currie having reiterated his oft-repeated statement that he was very much impressed with all he had seen in Chungking (and here we must add that practically everyone who goes to China's war-time capital is), the thrusts came.

Mr. Currie parried the very first one. He could not say anything more about what he thought of the situation with regard to China's war of resistance. He would have first to make his report to Washington.

No. Mr. Currie parried once more, he could not discuss the Far Eastern situation. Here the Chinese Press looked over their long lists of hieroglyphics and must have decided individually to remain calm through a crisis that called for the shelving of the rest of their questionnaires.

DEAD SILENCE. The two men who had finally taken the two best seats looked a little harried, being directly in the path of question and answer, and seemed impressed with the dead silence. Mr. Currie broke the silence suddenly. The 10 minutes he had promised the Press were going with the march of time, and he was prepared to give the Press of Hongkong at least "one big scoop."

Holding up his cigarette in a gesture commanding the attention of all, Mr. Currie said he could tell us something, though. He was carrying back to President Roosevelt, Mr. Currie said, a personal message of greeting from the Generalissimo.

The foreign correspondent present immediately jotted this fact down on his pad, and the world must have by now heard about it.

AND SOME MORE. Mr. Currie did tell us some more. He had dined here with His Excellency the Governor and had paid courtesy calls on Mme. Kung, Mme. Sun and other dignitaries. In answer to a question put by another reporter, Mr. Currie said he had not visited any Ambassador in Chungking other than the British and American Envoys. He had been feted in Chungking, Mr. Currie concluded and he had not experienced a Japanese bombing raid.

Mr. Southard then announced that it was time for Mr. Currie's next appointment, and the conference was at an end. Both Mr. Currie and Mr. Southard agreed that the information imparted did not amount to very much in the way of news.

HEALTH BULLETIN. Thirteen cases (one imported) of tuberculosis, three each of measles and dysentery, two of enteric fever and one of cholera were notified to the local Health authorities on Friday.

VILLAGE SETTLEMENTS:

Ambitious Scheme To Relieve Congestion & Slum Problems

At a meeting convened by the Hon. Dr. P. S. Selwyn-Clarke, held at the Hongkong Medical Headquarters on Saturday, plans were laid down and steps taken for the creation of an organization in connexion with the project for Village Settlements on Lantau Island and in the Hebe Haven area of Port Shelter.

The scheme, which has been under official consideration for some time, is connected with the Colony's precautionary defence measures, since, if it materializes, it will offer an important means of relieving congestion in Saiyungpun and other slum districts on the Island.

The meeting was concluded by a lengthened discussion in which all those present expressed the determination to carry the scheme with their best effort.

PATRON SAINT OF WALES

Welshmen Celebrate Anniversary

The Hongkong Club was the scene of gaiety on Saturday evening when St. David's Society celebrated the anniversary of the Patron Saint of Wales with a cocktail party.

The party was attended by a large crowd of Welshmen, including Sir David Owen as the guest of honour.

In past years the celebration took the form of a dinner dance but it was decided to hold a cocktail party this year owing to the war.

THAT'S HOW THE MONEY GOES

THE CLAMOUR for economy in Government spending, which was voiced in the Legislative Council at its budget session and which was echoed by the Chairman of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, reached a crescendo on Friday evening at the annual meeting of the Kowloon Residents' Association. A member of that civic body, which has taken a foremost part in recent months in watching over the interests of the people of this Colony, had some pungent remarks to make on the work of the Air Raids Precaution Department and to its blundering progress which, he averred, was "a thundering waste of public money." This criticism of the Government's policy, and the extravagance which has crept into several of its departments can no longer be regarded as the outpourings of arm-chair critics. The public has come to realise that the need for economy, which has been forced on the people by reason of increased taxation and high living costs, must also be reflected in Government expenditure if Hongkong's contribution to the mother country's war efforts is to be proportionate to what is being done in other parts of the British Empire. At present, practically the whole responsibility for this effort has been undertaken by the public generally, while the Government continues to indulge in what was, very aptly, described as "care-free spending" to satisfy the whims and fancies of departments which are making a vigorous show of trying to justify their extravagant existence.

THE REMARKS which Mr. A. C. Jeffreys made on the A.R.P. Department's shelter scheme only expressed public opinion to the full. As he said, the department has been committing one mistake after another in whatever it set out to do. The head of this department, after having previously made the most sweeping statements on the futility of ever attempting the construction of air raid shelters, whether in the form of tunnels, trenches or block-houses, suddenly discovered that he was entirely wrong in his conclusions and an expenditure, which might have been equally distributed over a period of time since the outbreak of the war, was dumped on the Colony's financial resources several months after the hostilities began. This error of judgment was patiently accepted by the public, who were comforted in the knowledge that something was being done in their interests. More errors followed, however, in the selection of sites for the tunnels and the hundreds of pen-shelters which have been constructed in a haphazard fashion in totally unsuitable localities and for the proper protection of which no steps were taken until these shelters became public latrines. At a recent meeting of the Finance Committee an opportunity was taken to cover up this glaring oversight by the request for a supplementary vote of several thousand dollars to provide gates for these shelters, when this expenditure should have been rightly included in the original cost for building.

APART from these blatant examples of wasteful spending, last year the A.R.P. Department expended over $95,000 on personal emoluments and the estimate for the current year is over $67,000. These totals, it must be remembered, are additional to what the antics of its personnel cost on black-out nights when, in addition to rates of pay ranging from $50 to $5 per night, a sumptuous repast at taxpayers' expense is provided for the thousands of wardens and other jack-rabbits who have been taken on to swell the forces with no proper inquiry as to character and suitability for such work. During last week's black-out, for instance, complaint was made of molestation of a respectable lady by an A.R.P. worker, who took advantage of the fact that identification was impossible in the enforced darkness. The criticism voiced by Mr. Jeffreys seems in view of this sorry state of mismanagement and blundering, fully justified. We have ourselves on several previous occasions referred to the subject in these columns and welcome Mr. Jeffreys' demand that something should be done to prevent a recurrence of these gross indiscretions.

NEW LEE THEATRE MOST MODERN IN COLONY

Members of the local Press were given the opportunity of inspecting the interior of the newly renovated LEE THEATRE yesterday morning when the film, "Rebecca," was shown to a private audience. The film, incidentally, won the Academy Award as the best picture of last year.

At this newly-modernised and up-to-date theatre the first all-China gala premiere of the Charles Chaplin comedy satire, "The Great Dictator," will be held on Friday evening, Mar. 7, at which it is hoped His Excellency the Acting Governor, Lieut.-Gen. E. F. Norton, C.B., D.S.O., M.C., and other prominent personalities of the Colony will be present.

At a cost of over $150,000 the management of the Lee Theatre, the newly organised International Entertainment Enterprises, Ltd., has converted an old Chinese theatre into one of the most modern cinema houses in the Colony.

The renovations of the whole theatre were carried out by Messrs. Davies, Brook and Gran, well-known local architects, under the personal supervision of Mr. H. J. Tebbutt, who drew up the plans. Although the exterior facial features of the theatre have been retained, except for a new coat of paint, the changes inside were so complete that it would be hard to recognise the old from the modernised theatre.

COSY SEATS

The wooden seats, with their barriers, have given way to cosy, leather-bound air cushioned seats neatly arranged in four sections. The theatre is air-conditioned and is the only one in the Colony to utilise the air pressure and water-cooled by fan system.

The whole interior colour scheme is of a pleasing buff colour harmoniously blended with red. This, combined with the soft concealed lighting, gave the theatre an atmosphere of comfort and ease which should be greatly appreciated by patrons.

The want of patrons in other directions are not overlooked and a small cafe with soda fountain is established midway to the dress circle where sweets, cigarettes and other refreshments are for sale. On the first floor, also, is a waiting room with couches and sofas.

BUILT IN 1925

The Lee Theatre was built in 1925 by the late Mr. Lee Hysan as a luxury Chinese stage theatre but with the advance of the movie industry in China and the decline in the popularity of stage plays the theatre lost the eminent place that it enjoyed in the old days. The new management operating the theatre, which is owned by Messrs. H. W. Lee, well-known local barrister, and R. C. Lee, is to show first run pictures at reasonable prices.

From the inspection yesterday everything points to a very successful augury.

DISCUSSION GROUP

Mr. A. S. Abbott, who was to have been the speaker at the Y.M.C.A. Discussion Group last night, was unable to be present owing to indisposition, but an interesting discussion on various topics was held instead, led by Mr. A. W. Ingram, Secretary of the Y.M.C.A.

In the course of the evening, a suggestion was put forward to the effect that the Discussion Group should become a social gathering in which members could get to know each other and their respective interests better.

RESHUFFLE IN JAPANESE ARMY OFFICER CLIQUE

Gen. Hata Appointed Head Of Expeditionary Forces

TOKYO, March 2 (Reuter).—General Shunroku Hata, former Commander-in-Chief of the Japanese forces in Central China and later A.D.C. to the Emperor, and twice War Minister, has been appointed Commander-in-Chief of the Japanese expeditionary forces throughout China with headquarters in Nanking, replacing General Toshiro Nishio. The latter has just completed a 10-day inspection tour of North China and has been appointed a member of the Supreme War Council.

GERMAN TROOPS OCCUPY SOFIA

The first admission of the entry of German troops into Bulgaria was made by the Rome Radio which stated that Nazi forces had entered with full consent of the Bulgarian Government, states a London message.

There has been no comment from Germany as yet.

A message which reached London stated that already there was a shortage of food supplies in Bulgaria. (Special)

NO MORE NEUTRAL

The semi-official Turkish newspaper, ULUS, said yesterday: "Bulgaria has not entered the war but she is no more a neutral. She has taken up a stand definitely with the Axis Powers. The question now is how her alliance with the Axis Powers will work." (Special)

"SPRING OFFENSIVE"

NEW YORK, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—Long prepared for all eventualities, the American Press and radio has met the German occupation of Bulgaria calmly. The latest move is widely interpreted as heralding the "spring offensive."

IN GERMAN HANDS

BELGRADE, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—Two hundred and fifty German planes flew over Sofia throughout yesterday. Aerodromes in southern Bulgaria are reported to be in German hands and dive-bombers are stationed there.

CHINESE COMMENT

CHUNGKING, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—Commenting on Bulgaria's adherence to the Tri-Partite Pact the influential Chinese daily, TAI-KUNGPAO, declares: "Under powerful German pressure there is nothing else for Bulgaria to do except carry out orders. We have only sympathy for Bulgaria."

"The same course probably will be followed by Yugoslavia. These steps mean gradual but steady German domination of the Balkans for an eventual German offensive against Britain."

"The only lesson we learn from such developments is the value of independence."

SHAI POWER SUPPLY MAY HAVE TO BE RATIONED

SHANGHAI, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—A warning that rationing of power supply may be necessary due to a shortage of coal deliveries was issued by the Municipal Council which urged that consumers of the Shanghai and Power Company economise in the use of power and assist in conserving stocks of fuel.

A serious view of the situation is held by the Council and industrial quarters.

AUSTRALIA WILL FIGHT UNTIL VICTORY IS WON

The speeches made in London by Mr. R. G. Menzies, the Australian Prime Minister, have received the backing of the whole Commonwealth, states a message from Sydney.

This was made clear by Mr. Curtin, the Labour leader, who said that there could be no doubt of Australia's decision to fight with Britain until victory is won.

"In this Australia of ours," said Mr. Curtin, "the banner of liberty was raised and has been held aloft many years. Among all our possessions which we treasure most is the right of self-government, personal freedom and individual opportunity. This new nation of Australia, is, therefore, devoted to the British cause which embodies the very future of civilisation itself."

MINERS' RESOLVE

An indication of the national spirit which pervades Australia at present was made evident by statements made yesterday by two members of the Miners' Federation—Mr. C. Nelson and Mr. Kellock.

General Hata will be remembered as the man who brought down the Yonai Cabinet on a demand by the Army for a drastic national reorganisation. It was while General Hata was in command of China that the Japanese captured Kiangsi and Hankow.

His appointment was made by the War Office in connexion with the regular semi-annual transfers and promotions of the officer personnel of the army, involving 78 high officers as an initial reshuffle.

NO POLICY CHANGE

Japanese circles understand that the change in the Commander-in-Chief of China does not mean any change of Japan's policy in the disposal of the China affair.

On the contrary, the change is designed to strengthen Japan's fixed policy by efficiently meeting the new developments of the world in general and East Asia in particular, following the outbreak of the European war, the conclusion of the Tripartite Pact and Japan's recognition of the Wang Ching-wai regime.

REARMAMENT SCHEME

It is also pointed out that the present reshuffle was made with special emphasis on the successful execution of the Army's rearmament plan by staffing technical departments with capable officers.

The reshuffle includes the appointment of Lieut.-General Kamiko Odaka, who has been active in North China and Manchuria after the Changkufeng affair, as a member of the Supreme War Council.

Soviet's Huge Defence Expenditure

Soviet Russia is to spend 71,000,000,000 roubles, or £2,840,000,000 on defence this year, states a London message.

This was approved by the Supreme Council and the amount of nearly double that for 1939.

The United States, has received an assurance that goods purchased in America are purely for use in Soviet Russia.

Japan has, it is reported, set aside £800,000,000 for further war expenses. (Special)

WAVELL THANKS EGYPT

General Sir Archibald Wavell has sent a letter of thanks to the Prime Minister of Egypt for the help given by the Egyptians in the Libyan campaign, states a London message. (Special)

Gen. Wavell said: "In expressing my personal appreciation to Your Excellency for your co-operation and the splendid spirit embodied in it I wish to express my thanks to the Egyptian Chief of Staff and the military authorities concerned."

This Federstein is recognised as the most militant trade union in Australia.

Both Mr. Nelson and Mr. Kellock said that Australia could count on a 100 per cent. coal production while the war situation continued and that no stoppages would be allowed to occur in the coal industry.

They said they were speaking for every member of the Federation, when they said that the miners in Australia fully realised that the fight in which Australia was engaged was one for the survival of democracy both inside and outside the Commonwealth. They would not allow Australia to be reduced to an Asiatic living standard. (Special)

HISTORICAL BUILDINGS DAMAGED

In a recent raid on Malta one of the seven islands of the Knights of Malta were damaged it is revealed in a London message which adds that the people of Malta are not angry because they are exposed to dangers of air attacks but because historical buildings have been damaged.

Historical Catholic churches have also been bombed.

On Saturday, a small formation of enemy planes dropped bombs in several places. No damage was done and only two persons were injured. (Special)

Italians Frantically Evacuate

Following the capture of Bardera by British Imperial forces Italians are frantically evacuating from the region between Bardera and the Shabelle River, which cuts through the centre of the country, and are reported to be heading towards Addis Ababa, states a London message.

Over 9,000 prisoners have been taken and everyday more and more of the enemy are giving themselves up. (Special)

ARSENAL FOUND

NAIROBI, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—An arsenal containing thousands of rifles and hundreds of machine-guns have been found in Mogadishu and much valuable air equipment have been abandoned in the aerodrome.

Three thousand more prisoners have been counted including 200 Europeans who had imprisoned themselves close to the barracks in Mogadishu before the British entered.

ENEMY HARASSED

South African Air Force bombers are continuing to harass the retreating enemy forces. They dive-bombed a motor transport park at Neghell (Abyssinia) on Thursday when fires and explosions followed the attack.

LARISSA QUAKE

The earthquake in Larissa has rendered hundreds homeless, states a London message.

Prompt help is being given by Britons and British motor lorries were engaged throughout the day in transporting people rescued from under debris. (Special)

MEAT RATIONS

LONDON, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—The Army and Navy have agreed to reduce their rations of meat, sugar and tea so that sedentary workers and services may receive the same as civilians.

Vichy Reply To Japanese

French troops continued to move southward while Japanese residents in Hanoi and Haiphong have completed their evacuation preparations and are calmly awaiting developments.

VITAL LIFELINE

CHUNGKING, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—Commenting on developments in the southern Pacific, high Chinese authorities state that any part of the Southern Pacific, whether Singapore, the Dutch East Indies or even the smallest island, is part of the vital lifeline of China since Japan's southward expansion and aggression in China is inseparable.

They pointed out that if Japan succeeds in her southward expansion, while it will mean Japan's complete domination of the Pacific, it will also mean a completion of Japan's blockade of China thereby enabling Japan to return later to deal a lethal blow to China.

MISSIONARIES TO LEAVE

TOKYO, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—A decision to evacuate all missionaries from Japan, Korea, North and Central China was reached at a meeting of the American Methodist Missionaries of Japan, says a semi-official Japanese report.

The meeting decided on evacuation due to inability to obtain funds from the United States to live in the Far East.

Meanwhile, it is reported that 17 missionaries sailed last night for the United States.

FAMOUS K.C. TELLS OF INFINITE BRITISH FAITH IN LIBERTY & JUSTICE

"The Temple may be bruised and stricken, bombs may fall on the dome of St. Paul's, the Guildhall may suffer the scourge of fire, but the freedom of men and women here is undismayed. It lives here in Britain as it lives in the brave hearts across the sea and in that spirit we shall not rest until our work is accomplished," said MR. NORMAN BIRKETT, K.C., the distinguished member of the English Bar, when he broadcast from London yesterday.

Mr. Birkett's talk was mainly addressed to Canada and the United States, but his words have a special interest for the whole of the British Empire as showing the spirit of the people of Great Britain.

THE WILL OF THE FREE

Mr. Birkett recalled a previous visit of his to Canada when he had broadcast to the people of that Dominion and the United States. Now, he said, he was speaking from London, a London embattled in war.

"No contrast between then and now," went on Mr. Birkett, "can take away and no dictators can destroy what Canada gave to me. That is a great stand-by for me in these tumultuous days. In Britain today there are some mighty things that nothing can take away. Savage bombing can never destroy them—they live and will live."

"I cannot come to Canada again in the old Empress of Britain, but a new Empress will one day sail the sea with a kind of glory about her because free men will it so. So you will understand how proud I am to speak to you to renew my old friendship and to say three little words to you. I learnt those three words and they say for me what we all feel—they are 'THANKS A LOT'."

A FINE LINK

"There are, however, a few special and personal things which I want to say to you and to all."

RAIDER FLYING BRITISH FLAG

LISBON, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—Survivors from ships sunk by a German raider state that the raider was flying the British flag.

Having joined the convoy at night they declare that the raider manoeuvred into position and then, hoisting the German flag, attacked the ships.

LONDON, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—General De Gaulle stated today that Germans are infiltrating into North Africa and that 80 carefully chosen Germans last week arrived in Casablanca from where they spread throughout Morocco while waiting for more to follow.

GARMENTS OF IMMORTALITY

"The fearful events to which the people of this island have been called are not unrelated to all this," said Mr. Birkett. "The liberty and justice which made this place is deeply felt and cherished by all peoples, without distinction of class or creed."

"We know well enough of the spirit of our people under the ordeal of death and destruction they have had to face. The ordinary folk here have put on the garments of immortality. They don't seem to think anything of the way as they face what is happening and they remind me of the little girl who lifted her face amid scenes of destruction of her home and said 'Hitler won't make me cry!'"

"Underneath it all there is something fine and lasting and noble. There is something in the blood, something in the sense of comradeship that we are all English and that we have got to stick it through. In some clearer way, the men and women of this island feel that all we are and all we have been and all those things which this famous Temple forms part of their outward expression are threatened by evil men and evil things."

INFINITE FAITH

"The history of English liberty is no doubt confused, but the reality of liberty is in our blood. But do not think the sense of justice is confined to The Temple. It is the dear possession of the ordinary man—the freedom to speak, think, act, worship and to live our own lives."

"The ordinary folk feel that all these things of infinite worth are menaced by the evil power which came out of Nazi Germany and they are resolved to destroy these 'evil things' and to destroy that power. The men and women of our towns and villages are determined to defend their life, which is your way of life. In that faith men and women live today and for that faith many have already died."

Italian Positions Are Bombed

ATHENS, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—Local patrol and artillery operations of varied strength are reported in a communiqué.

Reuter's correspondent on the Albanian frontier says fighting has broken out in the whole northern front after a lull due to violent snowstorm and the most vigorous artillery bombardment after which the Greeks attacked, took several strategic positions.

Air battles also occurred and British and Greek planes bombed the Italian positions, including Berat, El Basan and Tepelini while the Italians bombed the Greek positions behind the battle-front.

FRENCH STEAMER TORPEDOED

VICHY, Mar. 3 (Reuter).—The French merchantman, Louis Charles Shiffano, was torpedoed in Algerian waters on Wednesday by an aeroplane with black cross markings.

The crew was saved.

GREEK DAY: AUSTRALIA'S TRIBUTE

Yesterday the people of New South Wales paid a great tribute to the Greek nation—it was GREEK DAY, stated a message from Sydney.

In every city and town men and women cheerfully gave money and gifts to show their appreciation of what the Greeks had done in the cause of world freedom.

Many Greek soldiers, who happen to be in Australia, paraded the streets in their picturesque uniforms and were given a rousing reception.

Mr. Hughes declared that the debt which civilisation owed to the Greeks was beyond reckoning. (Special)

"Hard-Boiled Avoiders Of War"

WASHINGTON, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—Assertions that the League and Lend Bill would empower President Roosevelt to consolidate the United States Navy with Britain's Fleet, both in the Mediterranean and Far Eastern waters were made by Senator Taft (Republican) and Senator Wheeler (Democrat) in the resumed debate in the Senate today.

Senator Wheeler also declared that the time was not far distant when President Roosevelt should use his high office in an attempt to effect peace in Europe.

Senator Lucas (Democrat), in upholding the Bill, described its supporters as "realistic, hard-boiled avoiders of war." He added that failure to aid Britain might involve the United States in war with Germany and Japan.

"By supporting Britain with troops, not men, we can eventually compel the war-mongers to keep peace."

SANTA ANITA HANDICAP

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—The Santa Anita Handicap war won by Bay View by a neck after leading throughout.

Bay View was a rank outsider at 50 to 1 and was the first horse in the Handicap to lead from the start to finish. It was ridden by Wall who is the first jockey to win the Handicap twice.

Mio (3 to 2) was second and Bollingbroke (10 to 1) third.

Chalcedon, the "horse of the year," was a bad fourth, sixteen ran and the track was sloppy. The time of two mins. 5 2/5 secs. was the slowest in the history of the race.

LONDON, Mar. 2 (Reuter).—The principal objective of R.A.F. activity on Friday night was Wilhelmshaven, which was heavily attacked in spite of a high wind and very bad visibility.

MOBILITY OF NEW BRITISH ARMY

London.—The mobility of the new British Army and its new methods of air co-operation are ahead of any methods the Germans have used.

This is the conclusion reached by the military correspondent of The Times, who witnessed battle manoeuvres "somewhere in England."

In these manoeuvres, 40,000 troops covered 300 miles in 72 hours.

They tried out new tactics in close cooperation with planes.

"The new British Army, largely created since Dunkirk, carried out the most ambitious exercise ever seen in this country," says The Times correspondent.

"Nothing like it has been seen in wartime conditions."

"I wish I could tell the whole story."

"It gives vital meaning to a future offensive of a new and enlightened B.E.F."

BEST ASSURANCE

"It gives the best assurance that any enemy attempt to invade us will fail."

The manoeuvre was a rapid offensive movement based upon the assumption that the Corps was moving into action two days after a successful new B.E.F. landing in Europe.

Armoured units, including light, medium, and cruiser tanks, and hundreds of other fighting vehicles and transports, moved continuously through mud.

Two squadrons of planes closely supported infantry, armed with the latest 25 pounder guns, which attacked the thickest "crust" of the enemy's resistance.

Another squadron of planes co-operated with the armoured units.

All types of R.A.F. planes roared over on a dozen sorties, giving assistance which was demonstrably faster than that which the German Air Force gave to German troops either in Poland, Holland, or Belgium.

The R.A.F. also employed with great success a new "hush-hush" co-operation with ground forces.

U.S. Counterpart Of Panzer Divisions Are Expanded

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The armoured force of the U.S. Army—counterpart of German panzer divisions—is meeting its vast expansion programme without the complaints sometimes heard from civilians that it should have been built and equipped long ago.

Officers say that as early as 1928 plans to use the intense striking power of the fast tank and its related units were developed by the army and kept up to date on paper in the meantime. They assert that they are glad that billions of dollars were not poured into production which would be stored in huge warehouses against M-day.

NEW TANK

Just now a tank is being developed which will carry a 75-millimeter antitank gun. It can be fired point blank at an enemy tank. Ample provision is made to absorb the recoil without interrupting the tank's progress. Such a tank would give mobility to a gun which for a brief moment last spring threatened to interrupt the German advance into France.

The first armoured force was created July 10, with 7,411 officers and men and about 1,800 vehicles of all types. At present it contains 24,000 men and 6,400 vehicles, a 350 per cent increase. Ultimately it will total 84,000 men and 20,000 vehicles, a 1,200 per cent increase.

Higher officers of the armoured corps, however, are the first to admit the weakness of their unit, but also are first to defend its importance.

They concede that the tank, while efficient on the rolling plains, cannot work in mountains as recently exemplified in the Italian attack on Greece. They admit it would be stopped by marshes and slowed by country cut up by numerous streams.

But they insist that it is a powerful striking force which can break through the weak points in the enemy armour.

With tanks that can travel 50 miles an hour—some say 60 to 65—reconnaissance elements and infantry may be sent out to find the weak spot in enemy resistance. The spot then is further softened by machine gun fire, aerial bombardment and artillery.

At this point the armoured force then strikes, not at a limited objective but crashing through. It does not stop for the "mopping out" but moves at once to the rear—to the supply lines and communication centers—which are the very heart of resistance.

Two divisions are now in existence. The last division is at Fort Knox, Ky., the 2nd at Fort Benning, Ga. Each has a fair complement of tanks but they are, for the most part, the light tank. The armament is five-eighths of an inch thick, but they are fast. For training purposes the light tank is just as good as the medium. It mounts

Consequently, the armoured force officials are content to face the problem of expanding its vehicular and man power by 1,200 per cent—the present objective set for it under war department plans.

War Uses Of Canadian Woods

When the man in the street thinks of war materials his thoughts naturally turn at once to metals and chemicals. But wood is also of essential importance in war, and its war uses are surprisingly extensive. Its importance as a war material is so well recognized that it has been included in certain lists of war contraband. Canada is richly endowed with war metals and her chemical industry has reached a high state of organization.

Her forest resources are among the greatest in the world and assure a supply of this type of war material which may for present purposes be described as inexhaustible.

Ordinary peace time uses of timber, such as boxes and other packing material, are much extended by war; but many uses of wood at this time are of special military value. Among the most obvious of such uses are ammunition boxes, airdromes, aircraft, dug-outs, shelters and pontoon bridges. Again wood is employed for the stocks of rifles and light machine guns; and cartridge wrappers consist of paper made from wood pulp.

Purified wood pulp yields cellulose nitrate or gun-cotton, used as an explosive for demolitions and as the chief ingredient of smokeless powders, photographic films, collodion and celluloid plastics. Specially prepared wood charcoal is the chief working substance in gas masks. Acetone, obtained from acetate of lime produced in the distillation of wood, performs the function of a solvent or diluent in some explosives.

Wood is an important auxiliary war material as well. Rayon and staple fibre from wood pulp can be used more extensively in place of cotton. Producer gas from wood and charcoal may be employed for developing power for automobiles and trucks and so release quantities of gasoline for military purposes. Ethyl alcohol can be produced from wood waste and from the waste liquor of sulphite pulping.

Two species of trees growing in Canadian forests are of exceptional value for the construction of aircraft. Sitka spruce, which grows only on the west coast of British Columbia and in two of the northwestern States, has long been recognized as the best available wood for structural components. Yellow birch, found in the eastern provinces, is the preferred species for the manufacture of veneers for use in aircraft plywood.

The Canadian lumber industry normally produces between 3,000 and 4,000 million board feet annually, but production can be increased without installation of more machinery. Large volumes of Douglas fir and spruce lumber have been shipped to the United Kingdom since the outbreak of war, and substantial further orders have been placed. Great quantities of pit props, a relatively new product to the Canadian woodman, are being cut in the Maritime Provinces to meet the needs of British miners.

Pulp and paper is a great peace time Canadian industry, and at the present time it is playing an important role in war finance. Its chief product is newspaper, the greater part of which is sold in the United States. These exports of newspaper paper form one of the principal sources from which Canada is able to secure supplies of American dollars vitally needed for the purchase of aircraft and other materials in the neighbouring country.

In addition to fulfilling its commitments in the United States, the Canadian industry is able to supply substantial quantities of pulp and papers, including newspaper, to the United Kingdom, to the rest of the British Empire and to many countries in all parts of the world.

A gas and oil exploratory programme to cost over $150,000 and provide a geophysical survey of south-eastern Saskatchewan was announced recently by Hon. W. F. Kerr, Minister of Natural Resources. Testing by the gravity meter system, by the seismograph and ultimately by deep drilling will be carried on. The work now begun, will likely extend over a period of two or three years.

CHINA CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE IN LONDON

China's role in the Far Eastern tension was discussed by the China Campaign Committee during its fortnightly regular meeting in London.

The Committee decided to hold its annual national conference on Mar. 29 in Livingstone Hall, London, at which Mr. Quo Tai-chi, Chinese Ambassador to the Court of St. James's, has consented to speak.

Ways and means were discussed for publicity stressing the necessity of regarding China as a positive factor in the general Far Eastern setting and urging the British Government to give firm support and greater material aid to China.

TROOP-COMFORT FUND

With the campaign in full swing for the raising of funds to comfort the frontline troops, considerable quarters expressed confidence that the same 140 districts in the province of Szechwan will be able to contribute $1800,000.

Of the total, the people of Chengtu, the provincial capital, have pledged donations amounting to $400,000. The next highest figure is expected to come from Wansien, the Yangtsé port town, probably in the neighbourhood of $30,000.—(Central News).

Despite difficulty in raising funds for China during war time, the Committee decided to send £25 for the International Peace Hospitals in China.—(Central News).

ENTRY PERMIT FORGERIES

50 Passengers From Macao Detained

The discovery of forged Hongkong Government Immigration certificates in possession of arrivals from Macao has aroused grave concern in the Department.

Some 50 passengers from Macao, who possessed these forged entry permits, have been placed in the detention depot in Connaught Road, West, during the past three days.

The arrivals stated that they had no knowledge that the certificates were forgeries and that they had bought them from a certain agency in Macao for $4 each. It was authoritatively pointed out that certain forged permits carry the stamp "Immigration Office Macao" in which "office" is spelt "office."

FINE BAND CONCERT

LARGE AUDIENCE AT PENINSULA

The Peninsula Hotel Orchestra gave its best last night for the large audience of music-lovers who were present at the Band Concert in aid of the Bomber Fund.

The programme offered was a varied one, opera, classic and lighter music all being accorded a place, the selections obviously having been made with care and good taste and a desire to please, and earning a well-deserved applause.

Opera was represented by the Overture from Rossini's "The Barber of Seville," and a selection from Verdi's "Rigoletto," and ballet music was accorded a place with a rendition of Tchaikovsky's "Valse des Fleurs" from the "Nutcracker" Ballet.

PIANO SOLOS

The warmest applause of the evening was accorded Lila and George Plo-Uski for their two piano solos which obviously pleased. The selections for two pianos were Arensky's Valse and Schmitt's Paraphrase of the famous transcription of Chopin's Waltz No. 7.

Bizet, Fraser-Simson, Liszt and Mascagni were other composers accorded a place on the programme. Other items offered were five short numbers of incidental music from Tony Sargo's Chinese play "The Willow Plate" (Composition by Herbert) and a Waltz Medley "The Gay Nineties," arranged by Geo. Plo-Uski that was also very well received.

The programme concluded with "There'll Always Be An England" and "God Save The King."

POPULAR CHINESE ACTRESS HERE

Following a successful tour of French Indo-China and British Malaya with the Chinese National Salvation Dramatic Troupe, during which more than $1,000,000 Straits currency was raised, Miss Wang Ying, popular movie actress and vice-chief of the troupe, has arrived in Hongkong. After a brief stay here, she will proceed to the interior to report the tour to the Government authorities.

Miss Wang and her troupe went abroad in 1939 to do propaganda work and raise relief funds through dramatic performances. They arrived in Hongkong that summer when they staged several plays in aid of the wounded and refugees. Then they proceeded to French Indo-China, where, particularly in Saigon, they received wide acclaim and raised handsome amounts.

FOUR PERFORMANCES
On account of the various restrictions enforced in Singapore consequent upon the outbreak of the European war, they reached the Malayan port last summer, though preparations for going there had been made in the fall of 1939. Through the assistance of the South Seas Chinese Relief Association and leading Chinese there they gave four performances. At the invitation of Chinese relief organisations they made a tour of other parts of British Malaya.

They performed altogether more than 20 times, receiving popular acclaim everywhere they went.

CONDITIONS FOR AIR PASSENGERS

Information has been received from His Majesty's Consul-General, Kuning, to the effect that as from February 15, 1941, all passengers arriving by air in Yunnanfu from Hongkong will be required to produce certificates of successful vaccination performed within the preceding year, falling which they will be required to undergo vaccination after arrival.

COL. DONOVAN

LISBON, Mar. 3 (Reuter).—Colonel Donovan, President Roosevelt's personal representative in the Balkans, arrived here from Madrid.

LIGHT BLUES WIN

LONDON, Mar. 2 (Reuter). Cambridge beat Oxford by 13 points to win at rugby.

Captain S. H. Batty-Smith, whilst on duty in the grounds of Government House on the evening of February 26, fell and sustained injuries which will necessitate his being in hospital for several days. During his absence the duties of Aide-de-Camp will be performed by Mr. B. C. Fay of the Hongkong Police.

Colony Thanked For Gifts Of Garments And Supplies

The following are excerpts of appreciative letters received by the British War Organisation Fund, Hongkong Branch, for gifts of garments, hospital supplies, etc. sent to England.

From the Army Comforts Depot, acknowledging knitted garments:

"It is difficult to express the deep gratitude and appreciation for all the wonderful help we have received from the Hongkong British War Organisation Fund and we send to all the kind donors the heartfelt thanks of this Depot for all the generous help we have received."

From the Royal Navy Depot, acknowledging knitted garments: "We are, as usual, immensely grateful for the help which your Organisation is sending us, and I hope you will kindly convey to all those who have been sending these comforts the very warm thanks of Lady Pound and the Committee of this Depot, and tell them that we do appreciate their support so very much."

From the Vice-Chairman of the British Red Cross Society and Order of St. John of Jerusalem:

"As Vice-Chairman of the Red Cross & St. John War Organisation I would like to express the sincere thanks of my Committee for all the excellent work which has been done by the British War Organisation Fund. The quality of the articles which have been made and sent with such regularity to us are good, and have proved of the greatest value and the donations in cash which have been made are also deeply appreciated."

"I would be glad if you could convey to all your workers how much all they are doing is appreciated."

HOSPITAL SUPPLIES

From the British Red Cross Society and Order of St. John of Jerusalem, acknowledging shipments of hospital supplies, clothing for air raid victims, etc.:

"They are things for which we are getting very big demands at the moment, and in consequence we are most glad to receive this very generous gift. As you may imagine, large quantities of stores are going out for air raid casualties at the present time, and the help we are receiving from overseas is most welcome."

"Will you please convey to the workers our warmest thanks for all the splendid work that they are doing for us."

"We are most grateful for this further contribution to our War Effort and we would be very glad if you would convey to all concerned our deep appreciation for all their work on our behalf."

"You may rest assured that the garments in Case No. 1 will be used for the relief of Men, Women and Children impoverished by the war as you request. They will be more than ever gratefully received by all those who are sufferers from the recent indiscriminate air raids."

"We would be grateful if you will extend to all your workers the appreciation and thanks of the War Organisation for their most acceptable gifts, these are needed more than ever just now."

"It is with pleasure we inform you of the safe arrival in this country of the generous Gift of 10 Cases Hospital Supplies, despatched by you on behalf of the British War Organisation Fund, which were received into Store September last."

"The contents of these cases have been taken into Stock for distribution to the various hospitals who receive Service patients from the Naval, Military and Air Forces, where such supplies are of inestimable value."

"We would tender our grateful thanks both to the war Organisation Fund and to the Ladies of Hongkong who so kindly gave of their time and efforts on our behalf."

"SUMMARY OF WORK"
Excerpts from "Summary of Work" (a Red Cross fortnightly publication) from Dec. 1940 to Jun. 11, 1941.

"Playing Cards"—Hundreds of playing cards are wanted by the convalescent hospitals and homes of the War Organisation for the use of civilian patients who have suffered from German air attacks. Social clubs and, in particular, bridge clubs are invited to meet this urgent request by sending packs to the Comforts Collections Department, Red Cross and St. John War Organisation, 54 Victoria Street, London, S.W.1. By so doing they will help the patients to pass an amusement many an hour which might otherwise be without interest.

"Sixty Thousand Gifts"—More than sixty thousand gifts were received by the Central Hospital Supply Service Department during the fortnight ending 29th November. Of these, more than half came from overseas. Two consignments—one containing 7,742 articles and the other 5,075—were sent from Sao Paulo in Brazil. Hongkong gave over five thousand garments.

"From Home and Overseas"—Over eighty-four thousand gifts have reached the Central Hospital Supply Service Department from overseas. The most numerous consignment, comprising 20,073 articles came from Rio de Janeiro, Newfoundland and California each sent more than twelve thousand gifts and Hongkong 10,543, Ceylon 7,767 and Penang 5,847 articles.

"The One Object of Red Cross Work"—We do not supply basic requirements for the sick, wounded and injured, whether Service or civilian. That is the business of the Government. But the public of the world have always insisted on supplementing that minimum of help in war, and it has always been the Red Cross in every country which has been the vehicle through which the public have satisfied their desire to do more for the sick and wounded, prisoners and the miserable, than any Government can be expected to do.

At Coventry, Birmingham, Liverpool, Sheffield, Southampton and other places, hard hit by this war on civilians, we were able to find, at the shortest notice, extra nurses, material for blood transfusion necessary, serum of all sorts, drugs, hospital garments and comforts, money, transport and so on, while ambulances were sent immediately to Coventry, Southampton and elsewhere.

SECURITY ORDERS

The Government Gazette announces that if it appears to the Governor to be necessary or expedient so to do, he may declare any area in this Colony to be a defence area, and thereupon:

(a) it shall be the duty of every person in that area to comply with any orders issued on behalf of the Chief Security Officer for the purpose of meeting or helping any actual or apprehended attack by an enemy or of protecting persons and property from the damage involved in any such attack; and

(b) the Chief Security Officer may issue orders or give directions regulating or prohibiting the entry of persons, vehicles or animals into that area. Provided that in exercising any powers conferred on him under this regulation the Chief Security Officer shall be subject to the control and direction of the Governor.

(2) Subject to any directions given by the Governor, the Chief Security Officer may, to such extent and subject to such restrictions as he thinks proper, delegate all or any of the functions conferred on him under this regulation to any specified persons or class of persons.

NEW WAR POWERS

A new Order has been promulgated under the Defence Regulations and is notified in Saturday's Government Gazette. This Order gives the Police and members of His Majesty's Forces in uniform power to stop and search vehicles on the road, and vessels on the water-ways, which are suspected of committing war offences.

It says that the person driving or in control of any road vehicle or any vessel on water to which the public have access, or any inland navigation, shall stop the vehicle or vessel on being required to do so by a constable in uniform or any member of His Majesty's Forces being in uniform and on duty.

Upon the overtaking of a vehicle or vessel on any occasion on which the driver has failed to stop when lawfully required to do so, any constable or member of His Majesty's Forces has reasonable ground for suspecting that there is to be found in the vehicle or vessel evidence of the commission of a war offence, may search the vehicle or vessel and may seize any article found therein which he has reasonable ground for believing to be evidence of commission of any such offence.

It is further stated that the powers conferred in the new Order will be in addition to and not in derogation of the powers conferred by any other of these Regulations.
